Expectations and Code of Conduct

This is a fabulous opportunity to demonstrate by your cooperation, diligence and exemplary behaviours that ACSS is a great school.
Code of Behaviour

Essential to a successful camp/excursion is a safe, supportive and disciplined environment.

In order for this to occur the following need to be considered:

* Listen carefully and actively
* Help others if needed
* Be considerate of others
* Behave appropriately for wherever you are
* Respect your own and other people’s property
* Observe rules- they’re there for a purpose
* Be responsible for yourself and accountable for your own actions
* Be patient
* Stay in groups and keep within specified boundaries
* Be careful and observant
* Be organised and prepared

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

"Here is their spirit, in the heart of the land they loved; and here we guard the record which they themselves made" (Charles Bean, founder).

The Australian War Memorial was opened in 1941 to commemorate the sacrifice of Australian men and women who served in war. Visit one of the world's great museums; an outstanding archive and centre for research into Australia's wartime history.

A: There are various galleries depicting different wars where Australian service men and women have been involved.

Describe one of the dioramas that made an impression on you. You may wish to talk about troops involved, stats conditions or weapons.

B: You will be able to view some sound/light displays ie: mini submarines, bombing raid.

Describe how you felt. Imagine you were in a similar situation.

C: Hall of Memory.
