Let us stand up straight to honour
The school of which we are one.
Children growing strong to conquer
A world that's ours to come.
Years of toil and play and friendship
Growing strong in all we seek.
Friends together share together
And within one at Albany Creek.

The National Anthem

[Music playing in the background]

[Children singing along]

[Music fades out as the children finish singing]